
Only pairs with both endpoints independently verified contribute to deltas; planned and paired denominators are displayed.
These bars are descriptive paired means. Clustered uncertainty is reported separately; module order is not re-executed here.