
F1 bars use verified runs; black diamonds count failures as F1=0. Exact recovery retains every planned run.
Recorded time includes returned failures; unknown times are omitted and labelled. Confidence intervals use clustered report tables.